Spanning the upper two floors of a tall townhouse on Lancing Seafront, this generous three-bedroom maisonette benefits from exceptional views on all sides. To the front, the living room and principal bedroom enjoy stunning sea and skylscapes, overlooking Lancing Beach Green and the promenade to the blue of the English Channel. At sunrise and sunset, the skies light up, filling the rooms with a warming glow throughout the day. To the rear, from bedrooms two and three, your line of sight takes you across the rooftops and trees of the local landscape to the rolling hills of the South Downs, reminding you just how perfectly positioned you are here between the countryside and the coast.

Returning home, you can park on the spacious forecourt on Brighton Road, then step up through neat communal ways to your door. Upon entry, it is clearly a smart and modern flat having been recently renovated using contemporary fittings and a fresh neutral palette in tones of grey and white to suit all styles of modern furnishing.

The eye is drawn first to the living room and kitchen which sit side by side, spanning the front of the building, linked by an open aperture window so the cook remains sociable. A deep bay window provides the perfect spot for a dining table and chairs so you can look out over the green as you eat, then relax on comfortable furnishings in the evening. Next door streamlined cabinets in white provide a wealth of storage alongside an integrated oven and hob, while space and plumbing have been left for a washing machine and a fridge.

Peacefully placed to the rear of the building, the first of three double bedrooms has ample space for a king bed and freestanding furnishings, while a double-glazed window frames private leafy views. Conveniently close, the main bathroom sits next door and is fresh monochrome tones with a shower over the bath.

Upstairs, bedroom two shares the same outlook, yet being higher in the house, the view only improves. Being on the top floor is ultimately peaceful the principal bedroom is vast offering space for freestanding wardrobes, a dressing area and a king bed. This room also boasts access to an en suite WC with cool chequerboard flooring.
